

The Management Team

Gary A. Miller, CFA

Gary A. Miller, CFA is Founder and Chief Investment Officer of Frontier Asset Management, LLC, a company he founded in 2000. He is widely recognized as a developer and the first practitioner of returns-based style analysis to evaluate investment managers and design diversified investment portfolios. Mr. Miller has been constructing portfolios utilizing these techniques for nearly twenty years.

In 1987, Gary co-founded Optima Funds Management, an investment advisory firm specializing in managed portfolios of mutual funds. In 1995 he became Chief Investment Officer of ADAM Investment Services and LCG Associates, Inc., an affiliated pension-consulting firm, when ADAM purchased Optima. Mr. Miller became Chief Investment Officer of Portfolio Management Consultants, a leading provider of investment services to independent financial advisors, when PMC purchased ADAM in 1997. He joined The Private Consulting Group of Portland, Oregon as Chief Investment Officer in 1999.

Mr. Miller earned his MS in Management, concentrating in Investment Management, from the Georgia Institute of Technology, where he was a Presidential Fellow. He did additional graduate work in Engineering, Mathematics, and Systems Science at California Polytechnic State University and Portland State University. He earned his BS degree in Engineering from Humboldt State University. Mr. Miller is a Chartered Financial Analyst charter holder and a member of the CFA Institute.

Scott A. MacKillop

Scott A. MacKillop is President and Chief Compliance Officer of Frontier Asset Management, LLC. He has over 30 years experience in the investment industry, a career he began as a lawyer in Washington D.C. specializing in corporate, ERISA, securities and venture capital matters.

Prior to Frontier Asset, Mr. MacKillop served as President of US Fiduciary Services ("USF Services"), which provides managed account and investment consulting services to financial institutions and investment advisory firms. Mr. MacKillop was a also founder and President of Trivium Consulting. Trivium helps financial services to develop fee-based investment management and consulting programs. At Trivium, Mr. MacKillop worked with over 50 clients, including Bear Stearns, the Frank Russell Company, JP Morgan Fleming Asset Management, Wells Fargo and Nationwide.

Mr. MacKillop formerly served as President of Portfolio Management Consultants ("PMC", now a part of Envestnet Asset Management), the first firm to provide separate accounts to independent advisors. He also served as President of ADAM Investment Services, the first firm to provide mutual fund managed account services to independent advisors, and as Vice President of ADAM's affiliate, LCG Associates, Inc., an institutional investment consulting firm.

Scott speaks frequently to industry audiences. He has authored numerous articles on managed accounts, investment consulting and behavioral finance, and more. His articles have appeared in Journal of Financial Planning, Investment Advisor, Financial Advisor, Financial Planning, Financial Strategies, The Monitor and The Wrap Fee Advisor.

Scott received a BA from Stanford University and a JD from George Washington University Law School. He holds a Series 65 securities license.

Jeremy van Arkel, CFA

Jeremy van Arkel, Principal, has over thirteen years of investment experience. Mr. van Arkel specializes in mutual fund analysis, investment manager analysis and due diligence, and portfolio management. He has also worked extensively with portfolio diversification and global asset allocation techniques. Prior to joining Frontier Asset, Mr. van Arkel was the Manager of Investment Analysis for EnvestnetPMC, a firm with over $5 billion under advisement.

Mr. van Arkel earned his BBA in Finance from Stetson University with a concentration in Investments, and completed the prestigious Rowland George investment program. Mr. van Arkel holds the Chartered Financial Analyst designation and is a member of the CFA Institute.

Robert E. Miller, CFA

Robert Miller, Principal, is responsible for the investment management of all mutual fund client accounts. Previously, he researched market and economic data as an Asset Allocation Analyst for the Private Consulting Group. Rob also researched and gathered economic data for investment models and created databases to manage client portfolios as an Investment Analyst at PMC Investment Services, Inc. He earned his BA in Economics from Whitman College with a minor in Computer Science. Rob is a Chartered Financial Analyst charter holder and a member of the CFA Institute and the CFA Society of Colorado.